THE ART OF BEING AN EFFECTIVE CHAIR

The role of the chair of the board or a committee is more demanding and can be more complex than most people realise. This course will help you to chair well and to ensure that board governs effectively and that board committees add value to the governance process. Scenarios and case studies help develop skills in practical ways.

“So useful to hear this combination of stories and tactics both from Dorothy and from colleagues in the room.”

Noelle Rumball, Chair, University of Bristol

MEASURING THE IMPACT OF YOUR ORGANISATION

Do you truly know the value of the good work that your charity does? Could you be doing more to demonstrate the impact that your work has to funders, donors and the public at large?

This training course will give attendees the knowledge and tools to be able to begin building an impact measurement framework for their organisation. Theoretical, practical and discussion sessions will ensure that trainees come away with a knowledge of how to apply the concepts of social impact measurement and an understanding of how measuring impact can benefit their organisation. Day 1 will focus on impact measurement methodology with Day 2 providing real examples and an opportunity for personal reflection.

- written finance modules for the "Informed Trustee" programme launched this year by STEP.

Fiona is also a Trustee and Treasurer of Compaid, a Kent based disability Charity.

Jill Halford is a Partner at BDO and has over 19 years' experience auditing charities. She specialises in audit and advisory work (especially governance reviews). She has also spent time on secondment into charities, working alongside CEOs, including covering the Finance Director role. Jill led a consultancy review on building a sustainable self-regulatory system for charity fundraising in the UK.

She holds the ICAEW diploma in charity accounting. She is an experienced tutor and runs training courses for charity finance professionals.

Jill is on the HighTide (theatre and performing arts company) Advisory Board. She is the treasurer of the membership body Association of Chief Executives for Voluntary Organisations (ACEVO) and a co-opted member on the Audit Committee of the School for Social Entrepreneurs.

RESERVES POLICY COURSE LEADER

Jonathan Orchard is a partner at Sayer Vincent, specialist advisors to the charity and not-for-profit sector. He combines a board portfolio of audit clients with a particular specialism on the international development sector. Prior to returning to Sayer Vincent in 2013 he worked with many of the leading international NGOs providing internal audit and risk management support. He advises charities on the benefits of improved risk management, internal controls and the value that can be added by internal audit. He has been a trustee for the last 10 years – currently with INTRAC where he is treasurer and chair the finance and audit committee.

MEASURING THE IMPACT OF YOUR ORGANISATION COURSE LEADERS

Karl Leathem Director (Impact), Moore Kingston Smith

Karl leads the Impact Measurement team, supporting a broad client-load to understand, articulate and improve their social impact. As an experienced Advanced Social Value Practitioner, Karl has produced a number of impact studies across the breadth of the charity and social value sectors.

Karl has been involved with Social Return on Investment (SROI) from its inception, contributing to the establishment of SROI methodology in the UK and the launch of The SROI Network across some 22 countries and growing. He set up and managed the Assurance Process for Social Value International and has unrivalled experience of impact reporting and verification systems.

Helen Campbell Deputy Director (Impact), Moore Kingston Smith

Helen has worked in the charity sector for eight years. She is accredited as an Advanced Social Value Practitioner, and at Moore Kingston Smith works with clients on impact measurement and management, as well as presenting at conferences, webinars and training sessions.

Previously, as the Communications and Membership Coordinator for Social Value UK, Helen organised sector-leading events in impact measurement, and led on communications to raise the agenda of social value and improve quality and consistency of impact measurement. Helen has also worked as Campaigns Officer for FRC Group, a Liverpool based social enterprise, and blends competency of the technical side of impact measurement with an understanding and familiarity with operations and activities within charities.

Penny Court Senior Associate (Impact), Moore Kingston Smith

Penny is an accredited Associate Social Value Practitioner and is currently working towards becoming an Advanced Practitioner in the field. As Senior Associate of Impact at Moore Kingston Smith, she plays a key role in the planning, coordinating and conducting of impact measurement research projects. She presents at webinars, runs training sessions on impact methodology and is involved in the business development and communications side of things.

Penny has been involved in the charity sector for over 15 years in various capacities across the globe. She has lived and worked in the UK, Malaysia, Malawi and South Africa, and has led fundraising programmes and community projects in all of these countries. Penny has been a trustee and board member of a UK and South African not for profit and was chair of the Marlborough College Malaysia Charity Committee between 2012 and 2015. In 2017 Penny set up Channeling Change in Cape Town, South Africa, managing both individual and corporate giving projects.
