MEET THE TEAM

Jenni O'Donovan, head of events, Civil Society Media

Jenni has over ten years' experience working in events. As part of the conference team at the International Bar Association, she worked across the globe organising events in countries including South Korea and Dubai, and working with international venues including the Eiffel Tower and Grand Central Station. She joined Civil Society Media in 2012 as an event coordinator, progressing after a year into a conference production role. She now oversees the department and is responsible for maintaining high standards across both content and delivery, as well as identifying opportunities for growth and development.

Tania Mason, editor, Governance & Leadership

Tania Mason has been a journalist for over 25 years, specialising in the charity sector since 2003. She was head of the editorial team at Civil Society Media from 2006 until 2016 and her prior experience included Third Sector, Marketing and PrintWeek magazines as well as news agencies. She started her career with five years on a daily newspaper in New Zealand before moving to London in 1993. She is now a freelance journalist and edits Governance & Leadership magazine for CSM.

Gareth Jones, editor, Charity Finance

Gareth took on the role as editor in 2015, renewing his association with a publication he first joined as a reporter back in 2006. He left Charity Finance in 2013 to study a Master's degree in public policy at King's College London, before joining Slack Communications as editorial manager. There he wrote and edited for numerous organisations, including the Guardian, New Statesman, Charity Finance Group and Charities Aid Foundation. In 2018 he was shortlisted for Business and Finance Editor of the Year at the BSME Awards.

Steve Cotterill, editor, Fundraising Magazine

Steve began a career in journalism 25 years ago, writing for the British Council in London before being relocated to Beijing. From there he joined a trade magazine in Tokyo and went on to become a feature writer and editor for Nikkei newswire. Since returning to the UK, he has written for various publications including The Guardian, The Times and Dow Jones newswire, and edited the British Chamber of Commerce's Business Edge magazine, among others. He became freelance project editor for Dow Jones Financial News five years ago covering philanthropy and took over Fundraising Magazine in 2015.
