UNDERSTANDING GOVERNANCE

STAGE 1: THE TRUSTEE ROLE

If you are new to the role of being a charity trustee, this one-day course will provide the perfect introduction, while experienced trustees will also benefit from a refresher of their responsibilities and comprehensive updates on evolving elements of the trustee role. By blending governance and board leadership theory with interactive case studies, the first of our two Understanding Governance courses provides a lively learning environment where you can meet other trustees to share challenges and ideas.

“Before you become a trustee, you should learn as much as you can about the charity, and what being a trustee will mean for you.”

GOVERNANCE COURSE LEADERS

Dorothy Dalton writes, lectures and trains extensively on charity governance. She has over 30 years of experience of governance and was the editor of Governance magazine for over ten years. With a 'first' in mathematics, Dorothy, a former headteacher, was chief executive of ACEVO from 1992 to 2000. From 2000 to 2003 she was a non-executive director of the Inland Revenue. She is currently chair of governors of the Petchey Academy in Hackney.

Lindsay Driscoll has spent over 30 years in the field of charity law and governance in different roles, including legal commissioner at the Charity Commission and head of legal and governance at NCVO. She is now a consultant with Bates Wells Braithwaite. Lindsay has served on the boards of many charities and was the independent chair of the steering group for the Code of Good Governance.

Beryl Hobson has worked as a board director and chair in the private, public and voluntary sectors. She has worked with the boards of many high profile charities on regulatory issues and to improve governance. She is chair of an NHS Foundation Trust, and was previously the chair of the NCT, the UK's largest parenting charity.

Anne Moynihan has over 20 years' experience of working in the sector and was head of NCVO's Governance and Leadership Team until 2011. She has worked extensively within Citizens Advice – from being a chief executive of a CAB to being a member of the senior management team of the national organisation. Anne is a Fellow of the RSA and was a member of the steering group that produced and published the current edition of the sector's Code of Good Governance. Anne edited the latest edition of The Good Trustee Guide.

CHARITY CONCEPTS COURSE LEADER

Robin Osterley is chief executive of the Charity Retail Association. He has extensive experience in membership associations, having previously spent 16 years as chief executive of Making Music, as well as a short time as chief executive of sports umbrella Supporters Direct. Alongside this management experience Robin has a longstanding background in lobbying and advocacy work, and he has been a representative on numerous government and industry forums including the Music Business Forum and the board of ACEVO. He was also, with others, responsible for setting up the sector skills council for the creative and cultural industries, CCSkills.

FINANCE COURSE LEADERS

Don Bawtree heads up BDO's charity unit and has specific responsibility for larger and national clients. His experience spans 20 years of working in the sector, with a particular focus on financial governance. Apart from lecturing, client and committee work, he is chair of the Auditing Practices Board committee and author of the Sorp Compliance Checklist and (with Kate Kirkland) Tottel's Charity Administration.

Fiona Condron is a Director in the BDO Not for Profit team. Her career started with Deloitte in London and Cape Town working with a wide range of corporates. Fiona has specialised in charity audit for the past 10 years and has worked with many of the UK brand name charities. Fiona works within a significant and established team at BDO who are recognised as leading experts in the delivery of audit and advisory services in the sector. She has presented at internal technical seminars, provided training to the ICAEW special interest group for Charities and has co-authored Tolley's "Charity Administration" and the Charities Industry Accounting and Auditing Guide.

RISK MANAGEMENT LEADER

Stephen McAndrew is an experienced consultant and advisor who works with charities, public services and businesses to understand and manage the risks that they face. He spent 10 years developing and implementing risk management and patient safety programmes in the NHS in the UK, and state health and care systems in Ireland, New Zealand and Australia. For over twelve years he has served as a trustee of a number of charities where he has successfully applied risk management to improving safety, quality, sustainability and organisational resilience. He is currently a trustee of Rethink Mental Illness.

“ A systematic, insightful run through the role representative of a trustee. ”

Steve Ellison – Royal Artillery Centre for Personal Development

“ Essential for a new trustee and recommended for old ones. ”

Imogen Morgan – CEREBRA
